

Tuesday

Nov. 8, 2011

Remembrance Day

Once there was a grandmother and a granddaughter they were looking at Victoria's parents on the picture. Victoria puttes the wreath on the ground and she ties a red ribbon around the wreath sadly and stands close to the wall and sings a pome about remembrance day with her grandfather and her grandmother and when they were done singing the pome Victoria put her parents picture on the wreath and said I will miss you and love you. Victoria's parents had died in a war. And prayed to god that they always may be happy and blessed. Victoria said to her grandfather is mom and dad going to be okay he said yes. The end!!!